The Academy: Dungeon Space

Eve's Penthouse

There's a mob outside.

They're going to have a field day with this. You know time of death?

It estimates to around 11pm last night. Cause would appear to be strangulation.

The Academy?

It's broken...

Only picture that isn't broken.

Let's go take a visit.

No comment.

Detective!
Do you have any updates
about the murder?

How do you know
there was a murder?

I didn't, but
thanks for the update.
Do you have any leads yet?

No comment.

Really, any info would be greatly appreciated.

Back to the studio...

Those edits look good.

Now if only you could turn your assignments in on time.

Boss! We need to get this on the air. NOW!

What is it?

Eve Stone was murdered.

WHAT?!

I'll go live with it now if you want.

Okay. Do that. I have to make some calls.

Back to the studio...

Good job Sam.

Thanks.

Lecture Hall

Good luck, and have a good week!

Since this is an advanced class, I will expect more from all of you.

Calvin,
may I speak
with you?

What's up teach?

Have you heard anything about Jeff yet?

Nope.

You and your boys holding up okay?

We're dealing the best we can. But it's hard. Guys at the frat are all down.

If you need more time for the paper, just let me know, okay?

Okay, thanks professor.

Mayor's Office

You seem distracted dear.

Sorry sir.
I was just reading
about this murder.

Yes, it is quite odd isn't it?
I knew Eve.

She was a great leader and would have made an excellent replacement.

Were you two acquainted as well?

Not really.

Well, do not let her murder distract you from your job then.

Yes sir.

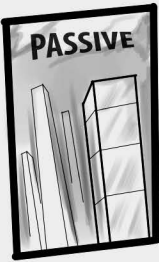

Sir, it's five o'clock.

Have a good day then.

So this is where you ended up?

What are you doing here?

I have an appointment.

You aren't going tonight?

Why would I go? She never gave a rat's ass about me.

Denny, she was -

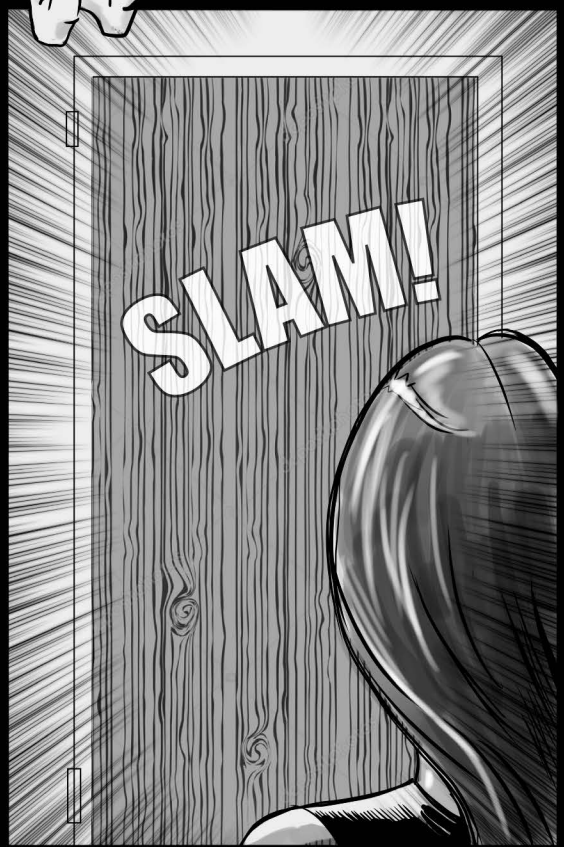

Ah yes! Denny, You're here.

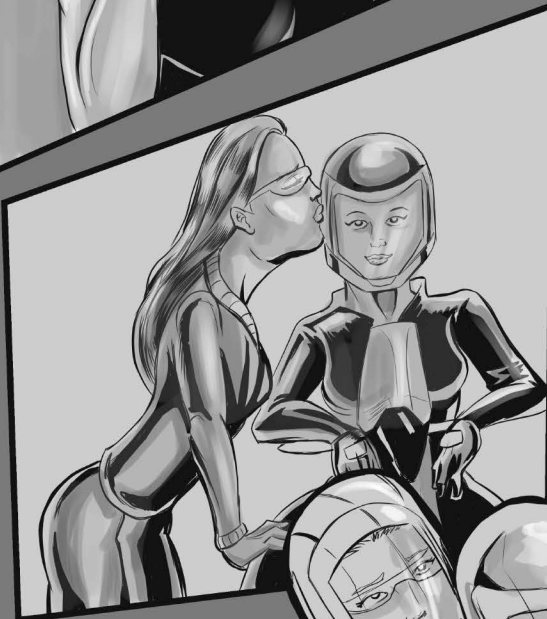

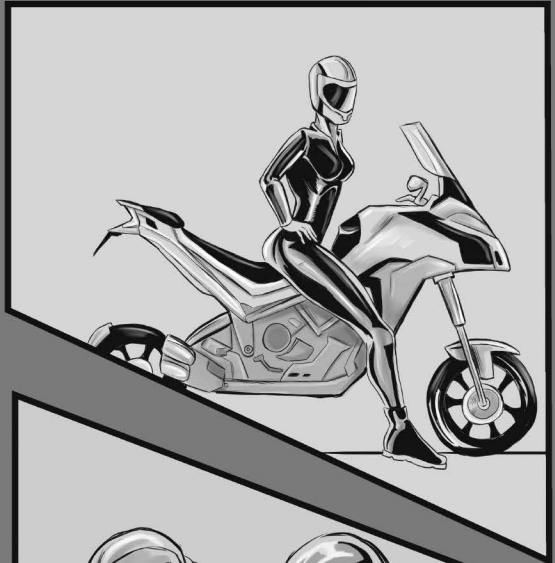

Do you and my secretary know each other?

Not anymore.

So Denny, how's business?

Pardon?

Denny let's be frank. You run an establishment that offers certain pain related services, correct?

Sure, my clients seek something specific. So you could say business is great. Why?

I need help. What you do is between you and your clients, don't worry. The murder of Eve and the string of porn shop hits are going cold.

There's a group you may have heard of. The Moral Order.

Yeah, aren't they that terror group who do things in the name of God?

Yes. Well it appears they may have a connection to Eve's murder along with the porn shop hits.

I need some information from you. Say, names of certain people within the community that might be suspicious.

You're not making any sense!

Denny I can offer you protection.

From what?

Denny there are people with a lot of power that feel what the M.O.'s are doing is a good thing. Sad to say it, but they see it as a cleansing. I can do my best to stop them, but it takes time.

The POLICE CAPTAIN stated that the murder could have been executed by someone from your circle, so -

Are you telling me a genocide is about to happen?

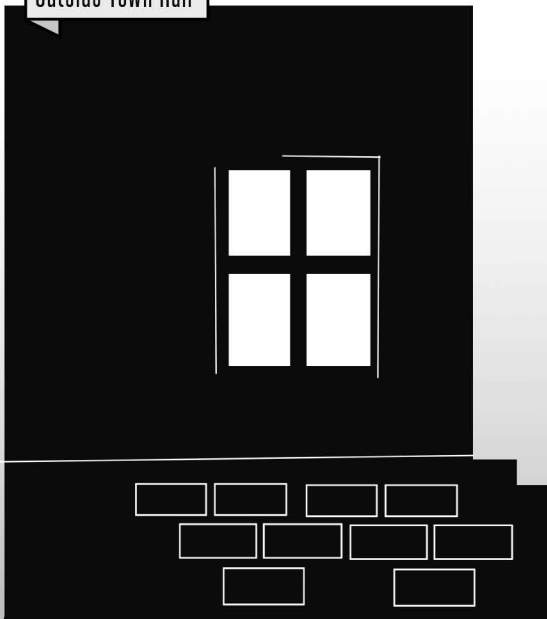

It already is Denny. Now if you join me, I can offer you protection.

Afterwards, you will be the only free standing establishment.

You can, in a way, reinvent the circle that in some ways I sense, rejected you. What do you say?

I say deal, that's what I say.

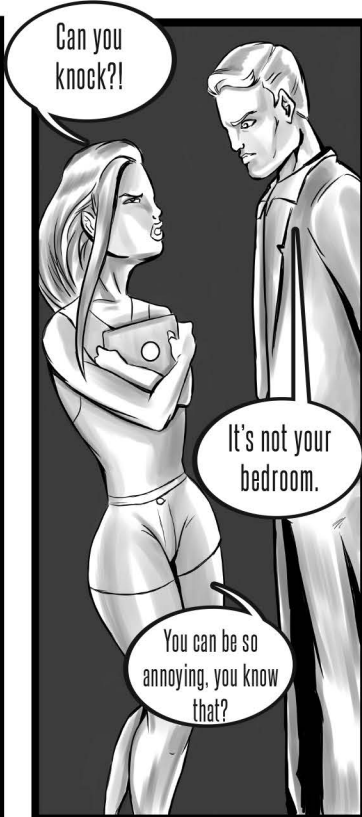

Outside Town Hall

You were right, he played right into it.

Excellent.

Beer?

Sure.

So, any word on the shop hit?

Not our case.

Damn.

That wasn't in the news. How do you know about it?

It was a friend of a friend that was killed. He's really down about it.

So, is anything being done about the murder?

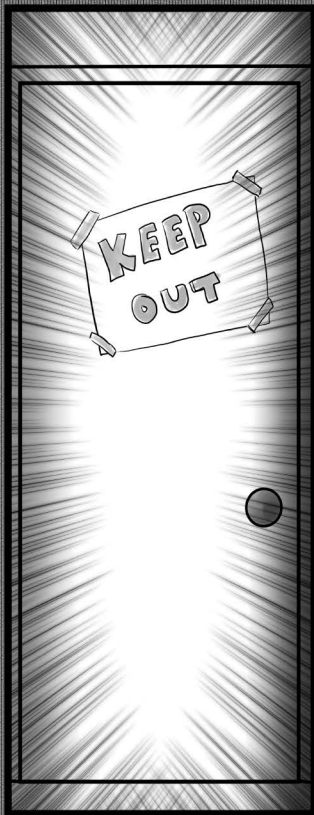

Can you speak English for me?

Thank you Mendez.

She's talking about the porn shop hit.

Oh, it's not really our case so I don't know.

Oh, you're worthless!

So now we get protection from the Mayor?

Yes. No one will be left except for us, and we will reign over the scene.

The Noir Dungeon will be the only place to come for erotic, painful fun.

I love it!

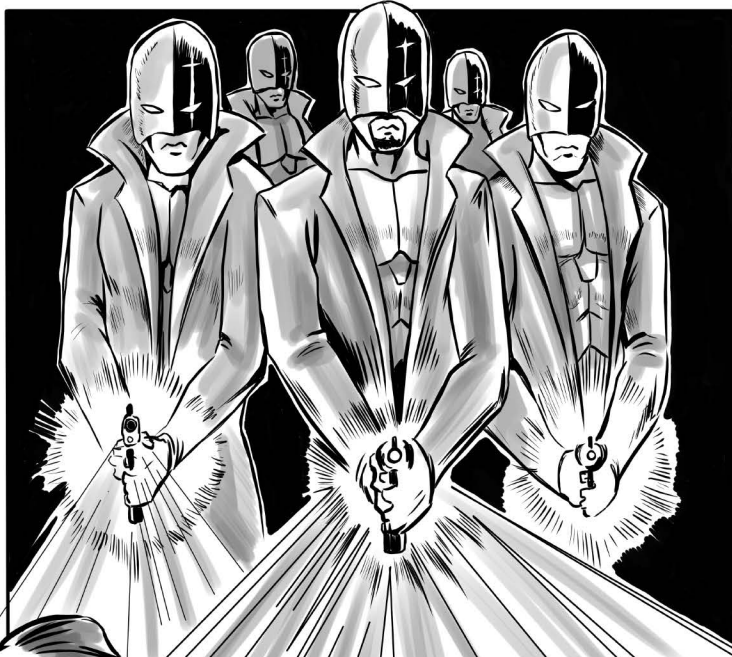

We will need more soldiers for the Noir family to grow.

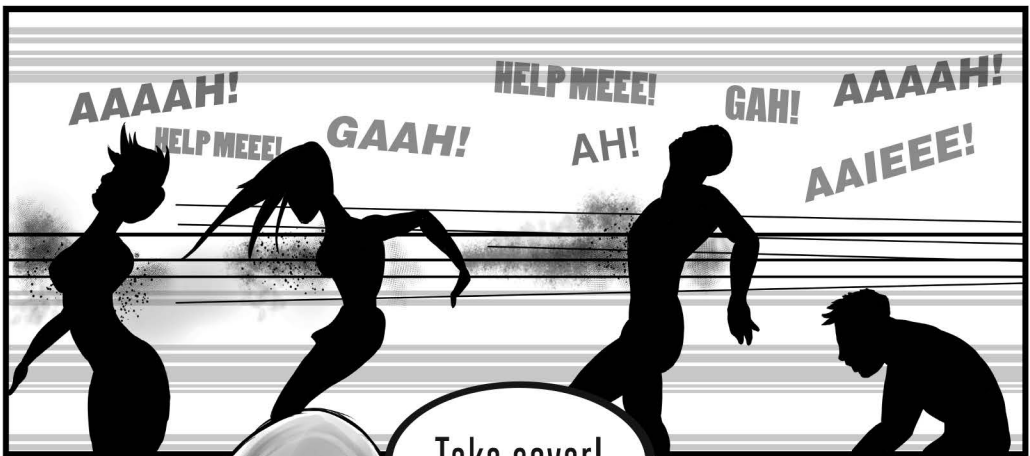

I'm going to a party. I could always recruit there.

Perfect.

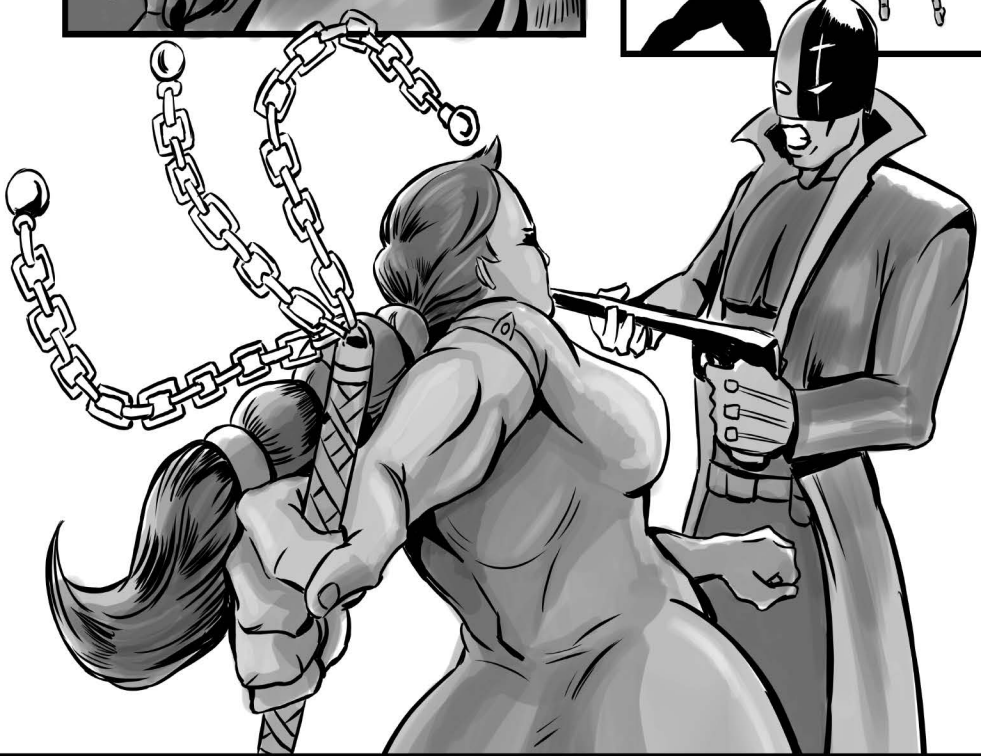

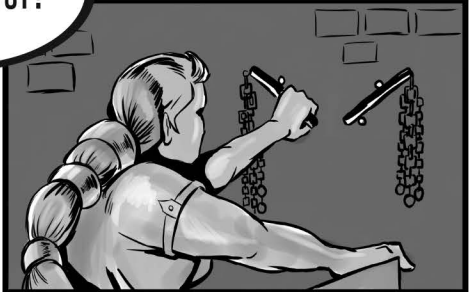

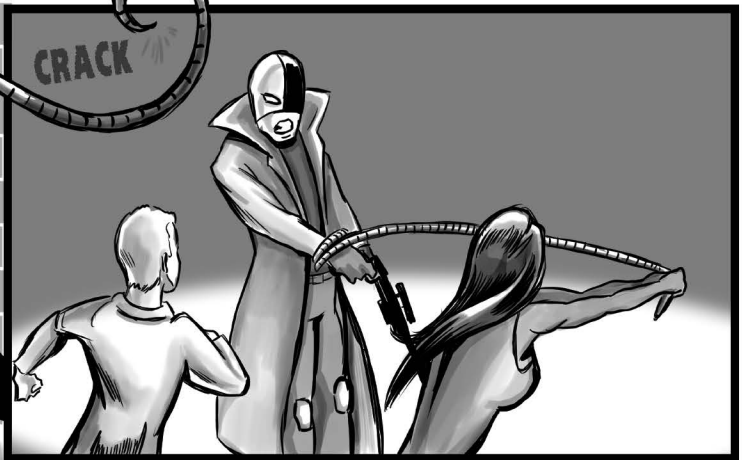

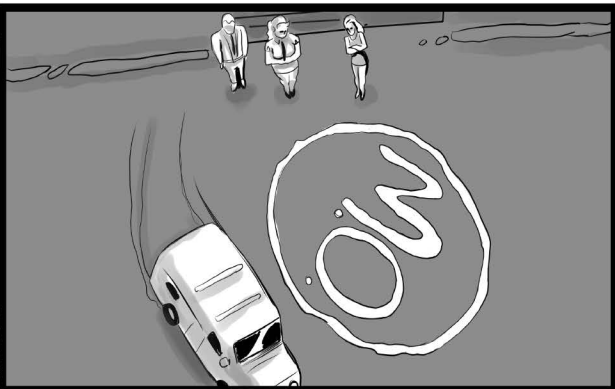

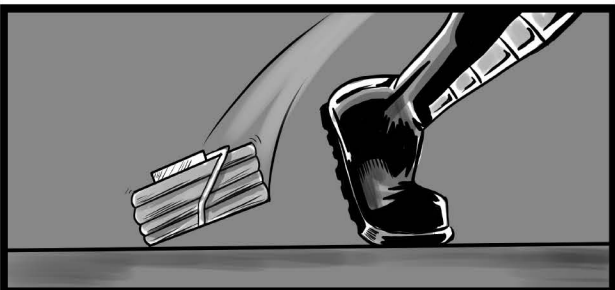

Take cover!

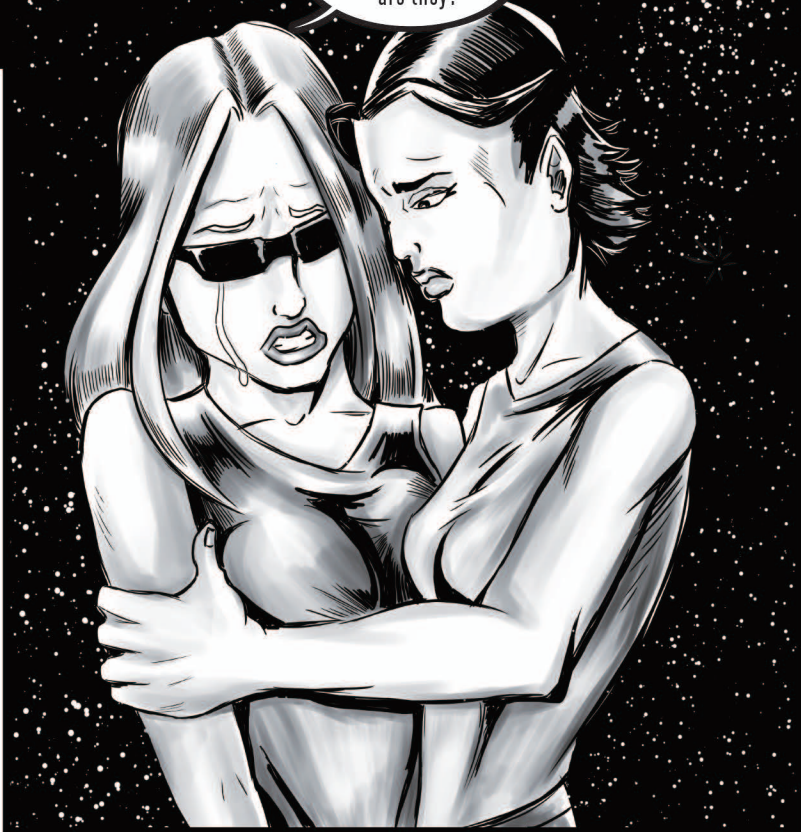

Bye bye...

No one's coming out,
are they?
